

Editor
of the (London)
Review of Reviews

The Money Kings

By W. T. Stead

Some famous financial bubbles and the men who have blown them. See this week's

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

The Law at Heart's Desire

By Emerson Hough, author of The Mississippi Bubble. A celebrated case, in which Curly's killing of his future father-in-law's pig played an important part.

The Admirable Tinker

By Edgar E. Jeppson. In which twelve-year-old Tinker engages a governess for his adopted sister and interrupts a duel.

Men and Measures

By Charles Emory Smith. What is doing in Washington—the Venetian complications and the revolt against Quay methods in the Senate.

The Love of Romance

By E. Nesbit, author of The Wouldbegoods. A tale of a gentlemanly burglar who played chaperone and prevented an elopement.

Your dealer will supply you, at 5 cents the copy, with the handsomest weekly magazine published, or we will mail it every week to any address FROM NOW TO JULY 1 50c ON RECEIPT OF ONLY 50c

The Curtis Publishing Company Philadelphia, Pa.

APPEAL TO THE SENATE

NEW YORK NEGROES DEMAND CRUM'S CONFIRMATION.

Resolutions Adopted Asking for Fair Play and an Honest Suffrage—Roosevelt's Name Cheered.

Spirited and earnest speeches were made at a negro mass meeting held last night at Cooper Union, New York. The meeting, which was for the purpose of protesting against the disfranchisement of the negro in the south, was held under the auspices of the 100,000 colored voters in New York state, and to raise money for the legal contest of the new constitution of Virginia before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Among the speakers were Bishops Derrick and Walters, M. D. Conway and John E. Mulholland. When reference was made to President Roosevelt by several of the speakers the wildest enthusiasm prevailed and the cheers were deafening. Resolutions were passed and a letter from Susan B. Anthony was read.

The resolutions, in their preamble, recited that the south has halted at no crime to strip from the negro the privileges gained as a result of the civil war, shooting 25,000 black men from 1863 to 1880, and from 1880 to 1890 perpetrating ballot frauds to disenfranchise negroes.

It further recited that the south, after 1860, sought to disenfranchise colored men in various states by constitutional amendment, administered so that tilliterate white men are allowed to vote, while educated negroes are excluded from the polls. The resolutions, among other things, commended the negroes of Virginia for rendering the nation a patriotic service in contesting before the Supreme Court of the United States the revolutionary constitution of Virginia, recently proclaimed a law, without having been submitted to the people for ratification, and pledged them their very proper support, and call upon colored men everywhere to contribute liberally to this cause, and urged the republican Senate, in the name of 100,000 negroes in New York state, to confirm the nomination of Dr. Crum.

The final resolution was as follows: "Resolved, That we appeal to the great heart of the nation, to her courage, her conscience and her Christianity, to her sense of fair play that has again and again trampled upon and triumphed over race prejudice, to lend aid and sympathy through press, pulpit and in every other way in the negro's legal contest against the resurrection of the ghost of slavery in the south in form more dangerous and purpose the same as of yore, to the end that 'states' rights' shall not again divide this country, unsettle peaceful conditions, nullify the Constitution and menace the perpetuity of the Union."

QUAY COUNTY CREATED.

New Mexico's Tribute to Pennsylvania Senator's Statehood Fight.

A bill was passed yesterday by the New Mexico legislature creating Quay county in honor of Senator Quay's fight for statehood. Tucuman, at the junction of the Rock Island, Choctaw and Dawson railroads, will be the county seat. It was first proposed to name this county after Edgar Q. Mills and then after Leonard Wood, but Quay won.

Curzon May Be Recalled.

A London cablegram to the New York Herald says: It is said in political circles there is probability of Lord Curzon being recalled from India shortly and of Mr. Brodrick, minister for war, being raised to the peerage and sent out as viceroy in his place. Mr. Brodrick's conduct of the war office is an apparent failure, his scheme of army reorganization being severely criticized in the commons.

FOREIGN COMMERCE

JANUARY EXPORTS LARGER THAN EVER BEFORE BUT ONCE.

Imports More Than in Any Previous January—Approximate the Billion-Dollar Line for Twelve Months.

The export figures furnished by the treasury bureau of statistics continue to indicate that the foreign commerce of the United States is resuming its normal conditions. The January exports were larger than those of any preceding January in the history of our commerce, except those of the year 1901, in which the January figures were about $2,000,000 above those of last month. The total value of exports in January, 1903, was $134,040,932, against $130,325,601 in January, 1901; $108,426,074 in January, 1902, and $97,073,000 in January, 1903. Thus the exports in January, 1903, were double those of January, 1893.

Turning to the import side, last month's figures show the largest January imports in the history of our commerce. The total imports in the month of January, 1903, were $86,100,891, against $70,139,192 in January of last year, and $75,168,297 in January, 1902. For the twelve months ending with January, 1903, the total imports approximate the billion-dollar line, being $703,283,637, against $742,068,925 for the twelve months ending with January, 1902.

This increase in imports is chiefly due to the continuing demand of the manufacturing interests for raw material from abroad for use in their industries. In the calendar year 1902 the manufacturers' materials imported amounted to $453,000,000, against $391,000,000 in the preceding year and $248,000,000 in the calendar year 1901. Manufacturers ready for consumption also show a material increase, being in the calendar year 1902 $104,788,228, against $128,707,825 in 1901, and $120,438,965 in 1902.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

JAMES P. GRANT ACCUSED OF CRIME OF BIGAMY.

Is Under Arrest in Townsontown, Md., for Virginia Authorities—General Items.

Evening Star Bureau, 201 King street, Bell Telephone 100.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., February 20, 1903. Officer William Ferguson of the local police force was dispatched to Townsontown, Baltimore county, Md., this morning to take into custody James P. Grant, otherwise known as John Grant, who is wanted in this city on a warrant sworn out by Mary G. Grant, nee Jones, charging him with bigamy. The sending of the officer followed a notification from the Baltimore county authorities that Grant had been arrested. He will probably be brought here at once, unless he demands a requisition from the governor. In the warrant the complainant alleges that she was lawfully married to the defendant in this city March 4, 1890, and that her husband, without procuring a divorce, has married another woman since that time.

The marriage license was obtained at the clerk's office in this city on the same day that the ceremony took place. Rev. J. H. Butler, who was then pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the nuptial ceremony. At the time the parties gave their place of residence as Alexandria. Grant stated that he was a widower. It is said, and a native of South Carolina. Miss Jones was born in Louisiana county, Va., and was twenty-seven years of age at the time of her marriage.

County Board Sustained.

The action of the school board for Arlington district, Alexandria county, in selecting a lot near the junction of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church railroad line and the Columbia pike as a site for a new county school house, was sustained last night at a meeting of the appeal board appointed to exercise supervision in the matter. The board has had the subject under consideration for nearly a month, there being a conflict of interests, but the final decision is said to have given satisfaction. It is expected that a handsome new school house will be erected in the spring on the site selected. The building, it is said, will cost about $60,000.

The report of the commissioners appointed by the circuit court for Alexandria county to view the real estate of the late Horace S. Johnston was made yesterday. It is the judgment of the commissioners that it is not feasible or practicable to divide the land in kind among the heirs. They favored the sale of the land and the division of the proceeds among the parties interested. It is estimated that the property is worth about $60,000.

Anderson Dismissed.

In the corporation court yesterday Judge Louis C. Barry, presiding, Joseph Anderson, colored, was acquitted on the charge of unlawfully entering the house of Mr. Thomas Coffin, on Duke street, in the night time. It was claimed by his attorney, Mr. C. C. Carlin, that there was no criminal intent on the part of the defendant, although the facts alleged were admitted. His counsel contended that he was mentally irresponsible at the time, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. A few weeks ago Anderson came to Alexandria from Washington to attend a ball. Early the next morning he wandered into Mr. Coffin's house and went to bed in a room in the third story. He said he thought he was in the home of a friend.

Brief Mention.

Mr. David A. Makiel died yesterday after a lingering illness at his home on South Henry street. He had been a sufferer from pulmonary troubles for several months. Mr. Makiel was at one time engaged in the grocery business on King street. He was a son of the late Wesley Makiel. A widow and one child survive him.

Miss Elizabeth Ewald and Mr. Francis E. Dove, both of this city, were quietly married yesterday evening at the residence of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rev. Father H. J. Cutler officiating. Miss Lena Baier acted as maid of honor, and Mr. Rudolph Norris was best man.

A card party was given by Mrs. E. H. Kemper yesterday afternoon at her residence, 200 South Henry street. Mrs. E. G. Dunn won the first prize, Mrs. W. O'Brien the second, and the "booby" prize was won by Miss Bessie McIntire of Washington.

A card party will be given by the Misses Bryant at their home on North Washington street this evening.

ORDER OF HIGH PRIESTHOOD.

Honors Conferred Upon Nine Presidential Officers in Chapter Masonry.

The Masonic Order of High Priesthood is an honorarium appendant to Royal Arch Masonry, and can be conferred only on an elected and installed high priest, as the presiding officer of a Royal Arch chapter is called. The annual convention of this order was held at Masonic Temple last night, for the purpose of conferring the order on the recently installed high priests of the chapters of the District. Past President Theodore Friebus presided over the ceremony, and nine new high priests were invested with the order.

At the conclusion of the work and business of the evening the convention adjourned to the Ball Room, where a banquet was spread. The dining room was festively decorated, and in the center, suspended from the ceiling by streamers of the characteristic color of the craft, was a design of the breastplate worn by Aaron and his successors in the priesthood.

President Howard M. Gillman, as toastmaster, introduced the speakers of the evening. Grand Master George H. Walker responded for the Grand Lodge. Grand High Priest George C. Ober for the Grand Chapter, Grand Commander George E. Corson for the Grand Commandery, Past General Grand High Priest Noble D. Larmer for the General Grand Chapter of the United States and J. H. McIntosh for Cryptic Masonry. Representative J. H. Brownell spoke eloquently of the late J. W. Chambers, who was the Grand Chapter of Ohio, whose labors in behalf of the order had been of lasting benefit to it throughout the United States. Representative Kittredge Haskins brought a greeting from the Grand Chapter of Vermont, Chaplain Charles C. Pierce, U. S. A., spoke of the influence of Masonry in establishing law and order in the Philippines, and Benjamin W. Murch responded for the new high priests who had been invested with the order.

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN.

General and Personal News From the West End.

Arrangements for the annual banquet of George C. Whiting Lodge, F. A. A. M., of Georgetown, to be held Monday evening, are almost completed, and the affair promises to be most interesting in every respect. Representative Sulzer of New York will deliver an address.

Exercises commemorative of the birth of George Washington were held last evening at Good Templars' Hall on the Brookville road near Wisconsin avenue, under the auspices of Silver Star Lodge, No. 20, I. O. G. T., of Tenleytown. A program, embracing patriotic songs, essays and addresses, was carried out by the members.

The officers of the Columbia Baptist Church have been elected as follows: Deacons, Messrs. Thomas Binstead, Reuben Bogley, Poynton W. Musson and W. D. Hall; clerk, Mr. E. W. Ladd; trustees, Messrs. W. H. Wilson, Henry F. Beck and George W. Thompson; treasurer, Mr. W. D. Hall; organist, Mrs. Henry Beck; assistant organist, Mrs. W. D. Hall. The Sunday school officers are: Superintendent, Mr. Thomas W. Binstead; librarian, Mr. William Smith; secretary, Mr. E. W. Ladd; treasurer, Mr. Charles Imlay; organist, Miss Margaret Stewart.

Dr. W. J. O'Donnell has entirely recovered from a slight attack of pneumonia.

Lansburgh & Bro. | We are open till 9 p.m. Saturday. | Lansburgh & Bro.

A Budget of Good Items at Tempting Prices.

This suggestive list is only a fragment of the many values to be found here tomorrow.

New Spring Jackets Now Ready.

Many special values in New Spring Jackets are here for early purchasers. We are well prepared for a growing demand. We've provided generously from the best tailors. Styles are the best and latest, replete with original ideas, materials are broadly representative, both in weave and coloring. A word of some of the latest arrivals:

Tan Jackets, $5.00.

100 Women's Tan Jackets of covert cloth, satin lined throughout; actually worth $6.75. Our opening-the-season price..... $5.00

Black Jackets, $5.00.

Black Cheviot Jackets, satin faced; actually worth $6.75. Our opening-the-season price..... $5.00

Tan Jackets, $5.00.

Tan Covert Jacket, made of excellent material; velvet collar; satin facing; worth $6.75. Our opening-the-season price..... $5.00

Black Jackets, $7.50.

Black and Tan Jackets; all satin lining; actually worth $10.00. Our opening-the-season price..... $7.50

Thomson Glove-Fitting Corsets, 50c.

We've just received from the manufacturer another shipment of these popular corsets in the following sizes, 18, 19, 21, 22, 26, 28 and 30. These corsets were made to sell at $1.00 up to $1.75. Tomorrow we offer them at..... 50c.

Boys' Clothing Close to Half Price.

Do not judge them by the price. After you see the way they are made, the quality of the goods, the lining, you'll be convinced that they are the suits for your boy.

Double-Breasted Suits; $2.50 and $3.00 Values = = = = $1.69

In fancy cassimere and navy blue cheviot, in medium weight.

Double-Breasted Suits; $3.25 to $3.75 Values = = = = $2.25

In all-wool fancy cassimere and navy blue cheviot, select patterns.

Three-Piece Suits; = = = = $2.39

Coat, knee pants and vest, in plain and fancy up-to-date styles.

Men's Wear at Low Prices.

Men's Fancy Shirts, 69c.

Men's Fancy Shirts, in neat patterns—new effects; all sizes. A for-reasonable transaction. In the regulars we sell them instead of $1.00 and $1.50. For Saturday at..... 69c.

Men's Linen Collars, 3 for 25c.

About 1,200 dozen Men's Linen Collars—a ply-in-up-to-date styles; all sizes; the regular 15c. grade. Go on tomorrow at 3 for..... 25c.

Excellent Umbrellas at Little Cost.

Women's Silk Gloria Umbrella, $1.33. 26-inch, natural wood, sterling trimmed, bone, horn and sterling knobs. Actual value, $1.98.

Standard Toilet Articles Specially Priced.

Rubifoom for the teeth—

17c. Bottle. Regular price, 25c.

Hudnut's Toilet and Massage Cream—

47c. Box. Regular price, 50c. box.

Mennen's Talcum Powder—

2 for 25c. Regular price, 30c. can.

Surgeons' and Physicians' Soap—

4 for 25c. Regular price, 10c.

Cuticura Soap—

17c. Cake. Regular price, 25c. cake.

Park & Tilford Bay Rum—

39c. Bottle. Regular price, 49c.

420 to 426 Lansburgh & Bro., 417 to 425 7th St. 8th St.

NEED TARGET PRACTICE.

Marksmanship in the Navy Has Not Maintained Its Superiority.

Admiral Dewey was recently credited with the statement that the gunners of the United States navy had deteriorated in marksmanship since the battle of Manila bay. In an authorized statement, in regard to that report, he explained his position as follows:

"At the time of the Spanish war I believed the American navy possessed perhaps a higher standard of marksmanship than any other navy in the world. At that time no country paid much attention to target practice. Our efficiency in this direction was due to the action of Mr. Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the navy, in taking the bull by the horns, dumfounding the Navy Department by expending large sums for constant gunnery practice. The result was apparent."

"After the Spanish-American war foreign powers, astonished at our proficiency, immediately began to pay more attention to marksmanship. They increased their appropriations for target practice. Many new appliances for working the guns were invented to excellent advantage. The result has been that the standard of target practice all over the world has advanced."

"But the United States has not increased the vigor of its efforts for the improvement of the gunners to the same extent that other nations have. In the Caribbean this winter I found that the men had little actual target practice for a long time. The necessity for it was apparent. Submarine practice is not enough. The men do not take the interest in this 'make believe' gunnery. They work better when they are firing the gun with full charges—they want to see the shot hit. Only with full charges can entire efficiency be gained."

"The accident on the Massachusetts, in which nine men were killed by the explosion of a charge in the eight-inch turret, is attributable directly to lack of practice. It is expensive, but necessary."

"I do not think we are deteriorating. I think our men can shoot as well as any one. In fact, they are better marksmen naturally than any other people, but they need practice. Other nations are improving. That is why we are not as superior as we were in the Spanish-American war."

No Dessert More Attractive

Why use gelatine and spend hours soaking, sweetening, flavoring and coloring when produces better results in two minutes! Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfection. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocery, 10c.

Jell-O

"What's the outlook for more?"

H-O H-O

All food is higher priced, but H-O remains the same.

After all H-O at fifteen cents a package is cheaper than eggs, meat or bread. It supplies all the nourishment the body needs as well as, or better than, these three staple articles, and does it with less tax upon the digestion.

HORACE WHITE RETIRES.

For Years He Was Distinguished Editor New York Evening Post.

Announcement was made yesterday, says the New York Herald, that Mr. Horace White had retired from his position as chief editor of the Evening Post. He has been succeeded by Mr. Rolo Ogden, who has been for the last twelve years a member of the editorial staff of that paper. Mr. White will retain an editorial connection with the paper, and will also remain as president of the Evening Post Company.

Mr. White is almost as well known as a writer on finance and as an authority on Roman history and the Greek language as a journalist. Born in Colebrook, N. H., in 1824, he was graduated in 1853 from Beloit College. He took up newspaper work, and from 1864 to 1874 he was editor and one of the chief owners of the Chicago Tribune. Some of his best-known works are "The Silver Question," "Coin's Financial Fool" and "The Gold Standard." He made several translations of classic works, among which the "Roman History of Appian of Alexandria," translated from the Greek, attracted much attention.

Newspaper Publishers Dine.

The seventeenth annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association in New York ended last night with a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria. At the guests' table were Mayor Low, who responded to the toast, "My friends, the newspapers," Henry D. Estabrook, counsel of the Western Union Telegraph Company, "New York and the west," Elmer Ford of the Hotel Men's Association, "How much easier it is to run a newspaper than a hotel," William McAdoo, ex-assistant secretary of the navy, "The publisher and the editor," Samuel W. McCall, "The sin of publication," and Charles W. Hornick, "The eastern tiger and the western wildcat."

Old People

need and deserve a little coddling. We've often known a bottle of VINOL to change a gloomy old person, bowed down with aches and pains, into a cheerful companion, because the aches were relieved, nerves toned up and energy and strength renewed by the reconstructing and rebuilding qualities of our food-medicine VINOL. If it doesn't help any weak person money returned.

HENRY EVANS,
DRUGGIST,
922 & 924 F St. N.W.